Forms

1. Freedom of Information Act forms

Section 7(1)(a)(iv)

Literature available by subscription

CreativeTT offers no literature by way of subscription services.

Section 7 (1) (a) (v)

Procedure to be followed when a request for access to a document is made to CreativeTT

General Procedure

In order to have the rights given to applicants by the Freedom of Information Act, you must make your request in writing. Persons can obtain a copy of the appropriate form (Request for Access to Official Documents) from CreativeTT's website, www.creativett.co.tt, or the Freedom of Information Unit's website (<http://www.foia.gov.tt>).

The application should include:

- Name of the Applicant
- Contact information for the Applicant
- The information requested and the format in which the information is to be provided
- Date of request
- Signature of Applicant
- Details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested.

Addressing Requests

To facilitate the prompt handling of a request, please contact or write to the Designated Officer of CreativeTT (see section 7 (1) (a) (vi)).

Details in the Request

Applicants should provide details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided clarification will be sought from the applicant. If the applicant is unsure how to write his/her request or what details to include, the applicant should communicate with CreativeTT's Designated Officer.

Requests not handled under the Act

In accordance with Section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act, requests under the Freedom of Information Act that will not be processed are as follows:

- a. Documents which contain information which is open to public access, as part of a public register
- b. Documents which contain information that is available for purchase by the public
- c. Documents that are available for public inspection in a registry maintained by the Registrar General or other public authority
- d. Documents which are stored for preservation or safe custody

Responding to your Request

CreativeTT is only required to furnish copies of documents that it has in its possession or can be retrieved from storage. Prior to the commencement of the Freedom of Information Act, old records may have been destroyed. The granting of a request for such documents may therefore be impossible. Various laws, regulations and manuals give the time periods for which records may be kept before they are destroyed.

Furnishing Documents

An applicant is entitled to access copies of information which CreativeTT has in its possession, custody or power. CreativeTT is required to furnish only one (1) copy of a document. If CreativeTT cannot make a legible copy of a document to be released, we will not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, CreativeTT will furnish the best copy possible and note its quality in our reply.

Please note the Bureau is not compelled to do the following:

- a. create new documents; or
- b. perform research for the public.

Time Limits

The Freedom of Information Act sets a time limit of thirty (30) calendar days from the date the request was received to notify the applicant of the approval or refusal of the request for access to documents. CreativeTT will try diligently to comply with the time limit, but where it appears that processing a request may take longer than the statutory limit, CreativeTT will acknowledge the request and advise the applicant of its status. If it is determined that the request cannot be disclosed (refusal) then the applicant is informed of the refusal and the rights of the applicant according to Section 38A and 39 of the Freedom of Information Act.

Fees and Charges

Section 17(1) stipulates that no fee shall be charged by a public authority for the making of a request for access to an official document. However, where access to an official document is to be given in the form of printed copies, or copies in some other form, such as tape, disk, film or other material, the applicant will be required to pay the prescribed fee incurred for duplication of the said material.

Section 7 (1) (a) (vi)

Officers in CreativeTT responsible for:

- 1) The initial receipt of and action upon notices under section 10;
- 2) Requests for access to documents under section 13; and
- 3) Applications for correction of personal information under section 36 of the FOIA.
